POLICY ON THE QUALITY, SAFETY OF FEED PRODUCTS AND ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT

The Policy on the Quality, Safety of Feed Products, and Environmental Management is clear and future-oriented. It clearly identifies our commitment to prevent the pollution of feed products and the environment. This mission of our company is based on constant care for the safety of feed products and environmental management.

We are aware of all the impacts of our processes on the safety of feed products and the environmental, we identify and control them, and reduce their impacts on the environment.

In implementing the policy of our company, we are guided by our development orientation towards in European recognized company, capable with traditional and modern products to satisfy customer needs and thus maintain its competitive advantage.

- Acting in accordance with the applicable legislation, fulfilling the requirements of customers and Feed Safety Management System, as well as all the other obligations we undertake and accept.
- We manage the processes in such as to way to assure the safety of feed products and processes, and to prevent any risks for the health of our employees and nearby residents.
- The aspects of environmental protection and safety of feed products are important prerequisites for stable planning and improvement of business within the company.
- Meeting objectives in the area of quality, safety of feed products, and environmental management is being constantly controlled with the monitoring and analyses of the available data. By acting in a systemic way we are able to reduce the possibility of discrepancies, as we are committed to a constant improvement in the area of the safety, quality of the products, and environmental management. All the above provides the quality of growth and the safety of business operations in all areas.
- We are actualising the required quality and safety of feed products and services, and an appropriate relationship towards the environment with timely preventive actions, providing all the resources and constant training of our employees, targeting procedures and appropriate motivating, and ethical approaches towards all our employees.
- With the green transition, we are aware of our responsibility to the environment, our business partners and all interested parties.
- Top management is committed to communicating and facilitating understanding of this policy across all levels of the organisation.
- Each employee in the company is responsible for performing during their work and committing to the policy on the quality, safety of feed products and environmental management, which is available to all stakeholders.
- The policy is under constant revision for its adequacy, effectiveness and possible improvements.

Sevnica, 07 January 2026

Director:
Ivan Mirt

Zap:04.1-7